

Nevada Humanities to Host Informational Grant Meetings in Henderson, Las Vegas, Reno, and Elko

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 20, 2020—LAS VEGAS, Nev.,— Nevada Humanities will hold a series of free informational grant meetings in Henderson, Las Vegas, Reno, and Elko in January 2020. These meetings are open to anyone interested in learning more about applying for project grant funding from Nevada Humanities. Nevada Humanities offers grants of up to $5,000 to nonprofit organizations and government entities, such as libraries and schools, to fund public and educational programs in the humanities.

The Nevada Humanities grant application deadline is March 10, 2020, for projects taking place beginning July 1, 2020, and running through June 30, 2021. Applications requesting $1,000 or less may be submitted at any time, at least ten weeks prior to the proposed project date. Grant guidelines for 2020 will be available on the Nevada Humanities website in late January 2020 at: nevadahumanities.org/grants. The majority of grant funding provided by Nevada Humanities is made up of federal funds given to Nevada Humanities to be distributed within the State of Nevada, and all Nevada Humanities grants are dependent on the availability of these federal dollars from the federal government.

Nevada Humanities funds projects that encourage community engagement and conversation. This may take the form of face-to-face dialogue, such as lectures, forums, and round-table discussions, or through programs that stimulate thought and reflection, such as media productions, film screenings, exhibitions, local history projects, and projects that explore local culture and Nevada's diverse heritage and unique places.
