FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 6, 2022—RENO, Nev—Nevada Humanities has awarded 60 grants totaling $614,357.92 to 44 nonprofit organizations across Nevada. Supported by the federal American Rescue Plan Relief Act (ARP), Nevada Humanities Relief Operating Grant and Nevada Humanities Recovery Program Grants help Nevada’s humanities-focused organizations prevent, prepare for, respond to, and recover from the COVID-19 pandemic. Awardees have organizational missions that are humanities focused and/or demonstrate a commitment to public humanities or educational programming accessible to all Nevadans. Awards have been distributed to organizations representing all four congressional districts and statewide in Reno/Sparks, Las Vegas/Henderson, and rural Nevada.

“Nevada Humanities is honored to be part of our nation’s important pandemic recovery efforts,” said Christina Barr, executive director of Nevada Humanities. “We are well aware of the challenges that Nevada’s cultural organizations have been experiencing over the past two years, and we know that this funding will be critical in giving an infusion of financial support when it is needed most.”

In 2020, Nevada Humanities also provided $368,873 in federal CARES Act funding to 45 Nevada cultural organizations.
