

Chaya Bejarano

Grade 7 - K.O. Knudson Academy of Art Middle School

Headphones

Colored Pencil on Paper

The pandemic was a time of fear, loss, and overall confusion. People had to face many hardships and face many financial and political worries. For me, music was something that helped me get through the hard times. My art is of headphones because it represents the device that I would listen to music on. My headphones were what helped me during the pandemic.