

Heliane Sutton

We Choose to Smile Instead of Cry

Poem

For my submission, I choose to write a poem. It illustrates how although Covid-19 was very hard, we have the choice to look at the negative in the situation or the positive. We dwell on all the fear it caused, the death, and restrictions, or we can remember how we got creative with reaching out to family and friends.